FOR GOVERNOR
COL. M. J. BULGER.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

A Convention will be held at Liberty church, Talladega Co. on the 3rd Saturday in April next, for the purpose of nominating Candidates, to be supported by the people of Talladega Co. at the ensuing election. All voters are invited to attend.

March 28th, 1865.

☞The friends of
L. M. BURNEY,
JOHN SAWYER,
R. M. HENDERSON,
JESSE HARDIN,
announce them as candidates for County Commissioners. Election the first Monday in August next.

☞We publish a list of gallant dead of Alabama, in verse, by A. B. Clithero all of Montgomery, by request.

☞A late Memphis Bulletin says: It is reported, upon authority worthy of consideration, that the cotton trade will be closed in this department within 20 days, by order of President Lincoln, and be reopened upon new principles after his proposed visit South and West, which is looked for soon after the 4th of March.

The following telegraphic news, we clip from the Montgomery Mail of the 2nd inst.

RICHMOND, March 31.—Northern papers of the 29th have been received.

The war news consists chiefly in details of the recent operations in North Carolina and Virginia.

Lincoln had not returned from Grant's headquarters.

Washington telegrams to the Herald say it is reported that he is detained by propositions for peace negotiations; while there is nothing to confirm the report, it is not improbable that he may, before his return, arrange with General Grant for the reception and consideration of any proposition Gen. Lee may have to make, looking to a cessation of armed opposition to the Constitution and laws.

Gold 152.

PETERSBURG, March 30.—A heavy fight has been progressing all day in Dinwiddie, near Hatcher's Run, eight miles from Petersburg. Nothing official, but reports up to five o'clock, deemed reliable, state that three Yankee assaults were repulsed at half past two o'clock.—The enemy came up in overwhelming numbers and drove Bushrod Johnson's division a mile and a half. The Confederates were then reinforced, which turned the tide of battle, and we drove the enemy with great slaughter to and beyond their original position held in the morning. The ground was strewn with the dead and dying, and some hundred prisoners are reported to have been sent to the rear.

The affair of last night, for the roar of cannon and musketry, which lasted two hours, exceeded anything ever heard in this vicinity. It turned out to day that both belligerents conceived the idea that they were being charged behind their works, when in fact neither had left their intrenchments. Hence the prodigal expenditure of ammunition. It was the most novel event of this memorable war.

The loss was small on our side, and not supposed to be large with the enemy.

All quiet at that point to-day.

MOBILE, April 1.—The enemy invested Spanish Fort on the east, and erected a heavy battery south of the Fort, from which he keeps up a steady fire. They erected a battery Thursday night on Bayou Minette, cutting off communication with the fort by steamer from the city. Batteries Huger and Tracy opened on it, and with the aid of another battery silenced it this morning.

The enemy to-day moved up towards Blakely. It is expected he will attack that place to-morrow.

At Sunset yesterday Capt. Watson, of Gen. Gibson's staff, and Lieut. A. C. Newton, of the 4th Louisiana, headed a sortie of fifteen men from Spanish Fort, and succeeded in driving back the enemy's advance, killing several, capturing a Captain and 21 men.

The firing has been very heavy all the week. The enemy has made no impression on our works.

Fine morale prevails among the troops. Our losses are slight; that of the enemy very heavy, we having the advantage of position.

All things are going well.

SELMA, April 1.—Night scouts report that Maury got in the rear of the enemy by moving on the stage road from Blakely to Pensacola on the 29th.

Cannon was heard at Tensas on the 30th, and musketry on the 31st.

MILITARY ORDERS.

MACON, GA., March 16, 1865.

The following orders have been received from "Headquarters Military Division of the West"

"For the purpose of collecting and providing for the prompt restoration to their several regiments, battalions or companies all absentees from Lee's Stewart's and Cheatham's corps, the following measures will be taken without delay:

"1. Brig. Gen. Mackall, A. A. C. S. in addition to his other duties, is specially charged with the general supervision of the service involved—his headquarters being at Macon, Ga., and he will take all practicable steps to recall to their colors all who are absent from any other cause than actual disability for field service, or on properly granted furloughs. To this end he will establish camps at Columbus, Atlanta, Albany, Macon and Augusta, Ga., Montgomery, Selma and Mobile, Ala., and at Jackson, Macon and Columbus, Miss.; and such other points as may be found expedient, to which absentees living in the vicinities respectively shall be required to repair and report, and to which will be sent all those who may be collected by neighboring enrolling officers, who will be called on to give assistance under the regulations of the conscript bureau. He will also require all officers and men to repair to the nearest rendezvous appointed who may be absent by any authority less than that of these headquarters, or of the commander of the Department of Alabama, Mississippi and East Louisiana; in which case he will make a requisition for such absentees upon that commander, to whom he will communicate a copy of these orders with a request for the necessary orders to enable him to execute his duties within the limits of that command.

"2. All officers and men collected at the several rendezvous established these orders south and west of Montgomery, Ala., will be concentrated as soon as practicable at that place, and those brought together in Georgia will be assembled at Augusta."

* * * * *

1. In obedience to the above order, Major E. D. Willet, 40th Alabama regiment, has been directed to take command of the rendezvous at Montgomery, Ala., to which place all officers who have been sent to collect absentees belonging to the three corps in Tennessee, Mississippi and Alabama will send them in squads of ten or twenty, the number to depend upon the transportation from the centre of their field of operations, and the practicability of subsisting them at the point of assembly.

2. Corps of rendezvous will be established as early as practicable at the following points, viz: Columbus, Atlanta, Albany, Macon and Augusta, Ga.; Montgomery, Selma and Mobile, Ala., and at Jackson, Macon and Columbus, Miss. The officers and men collected in them will be fore arded, these reporting in Alabama and Mississippi to Montgomery, those in Georgia to Augusta or Macon. Until these camps are established officers and men will report to the nearest post commandants or enrolling officers, who are requested to forward them as above directed.

3. The officers on duty under these orders will make a weekly report of the absentees collected, giving name, company, regiment and brigade, the time at which they report, and the place to which sent. The commanders of the rendezvous at Montgomery and Augusta will make a weekly report of the officers and men received during the week, and the strength of the camp at the date of report.

4. Post-Commanders are requested to direct their Quartermasters and Commissaries to give all necessary supplies called for by officers engaged in this duty within the limits of their commands.

5. I am informed that the officers sent to me for this duty have been selected for their special fitness. It is therefore not necessary to urge upon them devotion to the service and earnestness in their endeavors to assist in bringing their old comrades back to their colors, but as the very nature of their service sends them to the vicinity of their homes, I may warn them of the danger of allowing themselves to lose one day in the enjoyment of home, which should be devoted to filling the ranks, by which homes are to be defended.

6. All officers and men returning are urged to bring in their arms, or any arms they may find in the country. They will the sooner be enabled to join their colors.

W. W. MACKALL, mar28-6t Brigadier General.

N. B.—All papers in Georgia, Ala. and Miss., are requested to copy for six times; those in Georgia will send their accounts to the Post Quartermaster at Macon; those in Alabama to the Post Quartermaster at Montgomery; and those in Mississippi to Post Quartermaster at Columbus for payment.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., }
March 23d, 1865. }

In pursuance of the above orders I have established a camp at Montgomery, Ala., on the old Fair Ground, near the West Point Depot. All the officers and men of the army of Tennessee going east will report to me at said camp; and all officers detailed for Mississippi and Alabama under Special Field Orders No. 12, dated "Headquarters, Military Division of the West," Charlotte, North Carolina, March 4th, 1865, will report to me their names, rank, regiment and brigade and post office, as well as make the reports and perform the duties specified in Brig. Gen. Mackall's orders above.

E. D. WILLETT,
Maj 40th Ala. Comd'g Rendezvous.

P. S.—Papers of Alabama and Mississippi will copy the above and send bills to Post Quarters, as directed by Gen. Mackall.

E. D. WILLETT,

HEADQUAR'S CONFEDERATE ARMIES
February 9, 1865.

GENERAL ORDER No. 1.]

In obedience to General Orders No. 1, Adjutant and Inspector General's Office, 5th February, I assume command of the military forces of the Confederate States. Deeply impressed with the difficulties and responsibilities of the position, and humbly invoking the aid of Almighty God, I rely for success upon the courage and fortitude of the army. Sustained by the patriotism and firmness of the people, I am confident that their united efforts, under the blessing of Heaven, will secure peace and independence.

The headquarters of the armies, to which special reports and communications must be addressed for the present, will be with the army of Northern Virginia.

Such returns, orders and reports from each army and department, will be forwarded as heretofore, to the office of the adjutant and inspector general.

Signed, R. E. LEE, General.

HEADQUARTERS }

February 11, 1865.

GENERAL ORDERS No. 2.]

In entering upon the campaign now about to open, the General-in-Chief feels assured that the soldiers who have so long and nobly borne the hardships and dangers of war, require no exhortations to respond to the calls of honor and duty.

With the liberty transmitted to them by their forefathers, they have inherited the spirit to defend it.

There is now no choice between war and abject submission before them.

Such a proposal to brave men, with arms in their hands, can have but one answer.

They cannot barter manhood for peace, nor the right of self-government for life or property.

Justice to them requires the sterner admonition to those who have abandoned their comrades in the hour of peril.

The last opportunity is afforded them to wipe out their disgrace and escape punishment for their crimes.

By authority of the President of the Confederate States a pardon is announced to such deserters as have improperly absent, as shall return to the commands to which they belong within the shortest possible time, not exceeding twenty days from the publication of this order at the headquarters of the department in which they may be.

Those who may be prevented by interruption of communication, may report within the time specified to the nearest enrolling officer, or other official on duty, to be forwarded as soon as practicable, and upon presenting a certificate from such officer showing a compliance with this requirement, he shall receive the pardon hereby offered.

Those who have deserted and taken service with the enemy, or who have deserted after having been once pardoned for the same offence, and those who shall desert or absent themselves without authority after the publication of this order, are excluded from the benefits. Nor does this offer of pardon extend to other offences than those of desertion or absence without permission.

By the same authority it is also declared that the general amnesty will be speedily proclaimed, to those who refuse to accept the pardon now offered, or who shall hereafter desert or absent themselves without leave; but they shall suffer such punishment as the courts may impose, and no application for clemency will be entertained.

Taking warning and caution from the fate which our enemies have led for us, let every man devote his energies for the common defence.

Our resources, wisely and vigorously employed, are ample, and with a brave army, sustained by a determined and united people, relying on God's assistance, cannot be conquered.

The advantages of the enemy will have but little value if we do not impair our resolution. Let us, then oppose constancy to adversity, fortitude to suffering, and courage to danger, with the firm assurance that God has given freedom to our families, will bless our efforts of their children to preserve it.

Signed, R. E. LEE, General.

February 11, 1865.

GENERAL ORDER No. 3.]

The discipline and efficiency of the army have been greatly impaired by men leaving their proper commands and joining others, in which they find service more agreeable.

This practice, almost as injurious in its consequences as the crime of desertion by the Articles of War, exposes the offender to similar punishment, and subjects the officer receiving him to dismissal from the army.

It is therefore declared that the provisions of General Order No. 2, of this date, from army headquarters, apply to such men as have left their proper commands and joined others, without being regularly transferred. They will receive the pardon promised in that order, upon complying with its conditions or suffer the consequences attached by neglecting it.

The names of such absentees will be forthwith reported to these headquarters, by the officers with whom they are serving, and immediate measures taken to return them to their commands.

As soon as practicable an inspection will be made, and charges preferred against those who neglect to enforce this order.

(Signed) R. E. LEE, General.

Talladega, Ala., March 8th, 1865.

In accordance with the above order from Gen. Lee, I hereby invite all absentees or, deserters, in this District, to report forthwith, or within twenty days from this order, to these headquarters, they will not be disturbed in any way whatever, and will be furnished transportation to their respective commands. Report to myself or Capt. DeArnait.

NEW DAILY PAPER IN RICHMOND.
PROSPECTUS.

THE undersigned propose to publish a daily paper, under the title of "THE RICHMOND HERALD," on or about the 15th of January next

It will be entirely independent in politics, but will never hold a record to the administration just appear it will measures which, in the opinion of its conductors, may be deemed promotive of the good of the cause in which we are engaged—A proper criticism of such acts as will be deemed adverse to this subject, will be, of course consistent with the independent character under which the paper is to be inaugurated.

In the matter of General News it will be found to keep pace with the leading journals of the day, while it will have added to it in the matter of financial intelligence a feature such as, we venture to say, no paper in the Confederacy can boast of. Editorials from the pen of one of the ablest financial writers in this or any other country will be presented in each number.

For reasons not now proper to be mentioned, we forbear to give the names of those who shall compose the regular editorial staff, but will merely observe that they shall appear they will be found to constitute such an array of talent as cannot be excelled on this continent.

The well known character of the individual whose name appears below, as a stenographic reporter, furnishes, we presume, a guarantee that, in all cases relative to important political speeches and debates, whether in legislative assemblies or out of them, the "HERALD" will present advantages certainly not to be excelled by any paper in the Confederacy.

The farming interests will be faithfully vindicated, and care taken to disseminate the earliest intelligence which a proper regard for the welfare of that great element of national wealth and power shall demand.

In the matter of correct commercial intelligence, equal zeal shall be manifested, our object being to assign to each of these departments an editor of known experience and ability.

Arrangements are on foot by which to secure the earliest foreign news and the paper will contain such editorial talent as will fully educate the bearing of foreign diplomacy upon Southern interests.

In short, "THE RICHMOND HERALD," will be found to combine every feature of interest which the requirements of the present crisis demand.

The enterprise is respectfully commend to the favor and patronage of the citizens of the Southern Confederacy.

All the papers in the Confederacy will copy till day and send bill to
